

Consultation: Medical Sciences Council scope of practice review

Medical Laboratory Science

Have your say

Medical Laboratory Science

This is part of a regular review done by the Council. The consultation looks at proposed changes to how the MLS profession can work, and the qualifications needed to enter the profession.

Advanced-Extended practice

We're also inviting you to give feedback about how the Council manages advanced and extended practice.

The consultation, and feedback request, close at 11:59pm, on Friday 27 March 2026.
